A detailed document regarding the HOI4 mod known as The Great War: Redux.

IMPORTANT

THIS DOCUMENT IS HIGHLY CLASSIFIED AND IS NOT TO BE LEAKED TO INDIVIDUALS OUTSIDE THOSE WHO HAVE ACCESS TO THE DOCUMENT UNTIL IT IS DEEMED READY FOR PUBLIC RELEASE

THOSE IN BREACH WILL BE DEFENESTRATED.

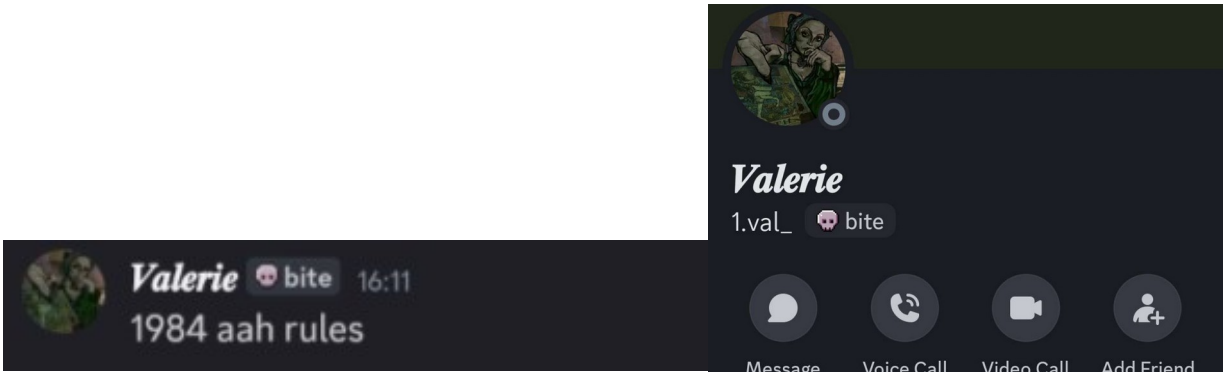
The Great War: Redux is a Hearts of Iron IV mod that adds WWI content. While the mod is great and loved by many in the HOI4 community, in recent times, the mod has been plagued by multiple factors that have affected its status as a Great HOI4 Mod. Factors include: constant revisionism, the abhorrent state of the developer team, the autocratic Discord server, and many more.

This document serves to document everything, and we hope the developer team can change their ways, or else, by the power of the community, the Regime shall be overthrown.

CASE 1: LITERALLY 1984

The regime bans people for a wide variety of unorthodox reasons such as:

- Saying that the server's management for saying that the server has "1984 ahh rules"



As you can see, the left image shows the person mentioning that the server is literally 1984, and the image on the right shows that they have been banned (The person is not in any mutual servers).

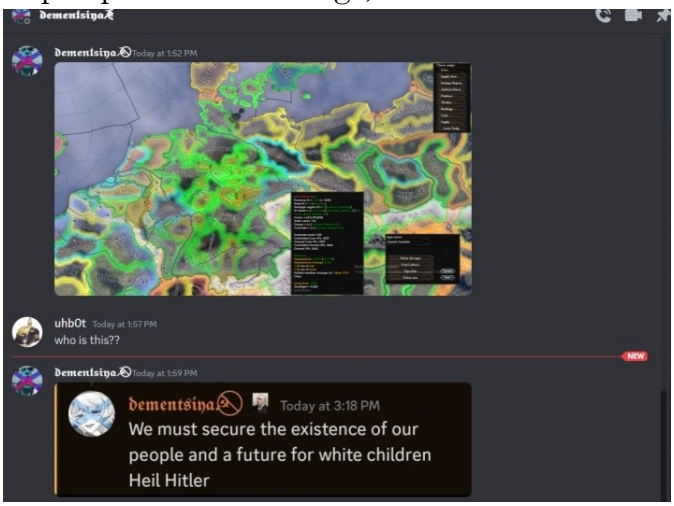
- Mention of the Error Log video.
  It has been noted that 80% of persons sending the link to the Error Log video in the general chats has been banned

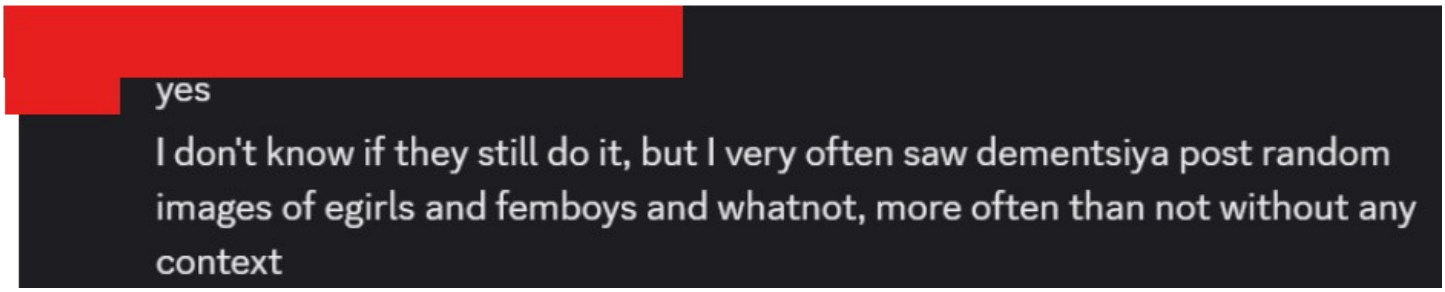
[CONTINUE, THIS ALL I HAVE FOR NOW]

CASE 2: THE STATE OF THE DEV TEAM

The state of the developer team in this server is abysmal.

- The Lead Dev of the Mod, Dementsiya, is an absolute menace. According to insider reports, he has been seen saying multiple questionable things, as seen in the screenshots below:

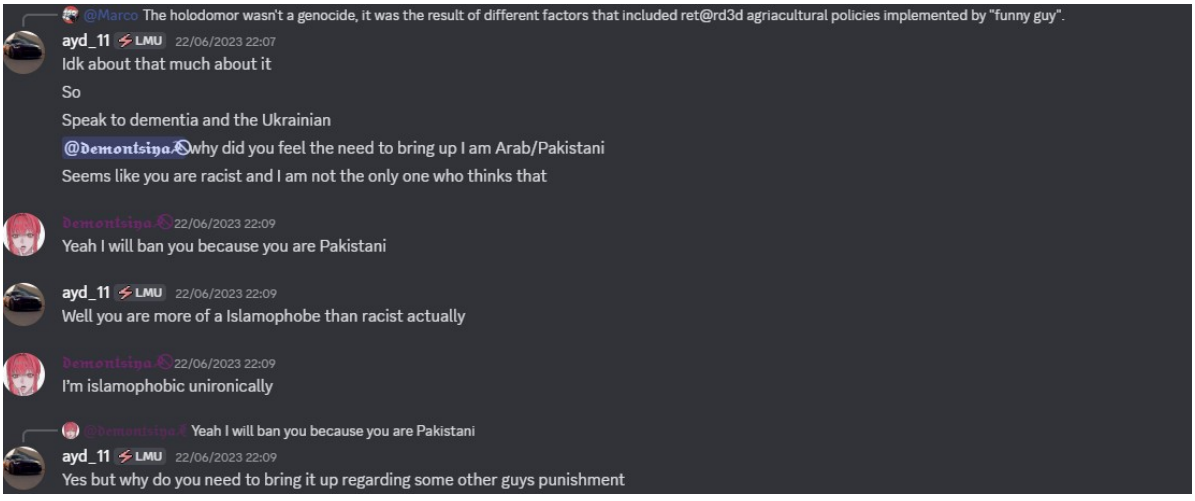




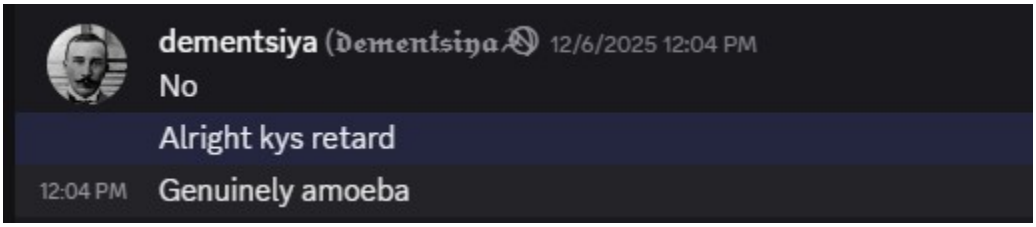
[SOMEONE MIGHT NEED TO REPASTE THE PICTURE WITH THE NAMES BLURRED]

The number of things he has said in the TGWR that directly break his own rules is so extensive that we have likely missed many.

a) He is an Islamophobe

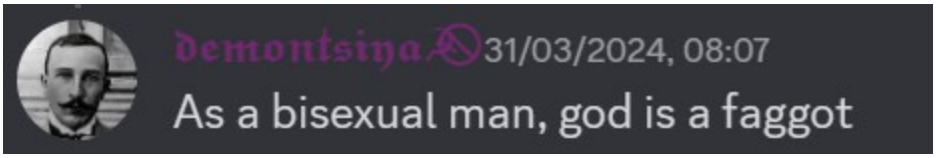


b) Using the word 'retard" (More on this later)

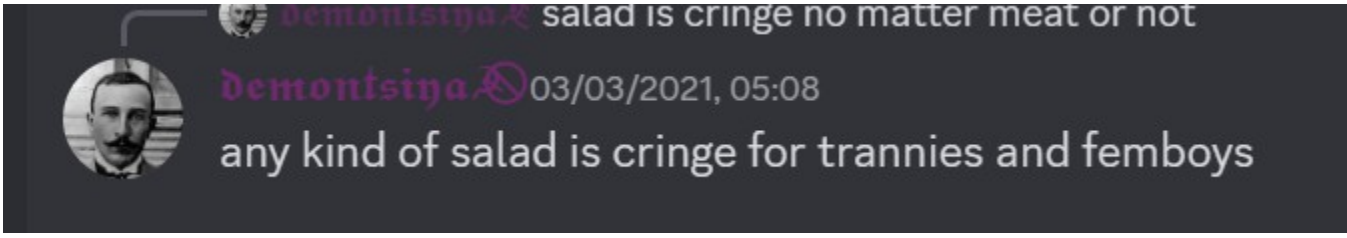


c) Comparing the United States of America to the Third Reich:

d) I don't even know how to caption this:

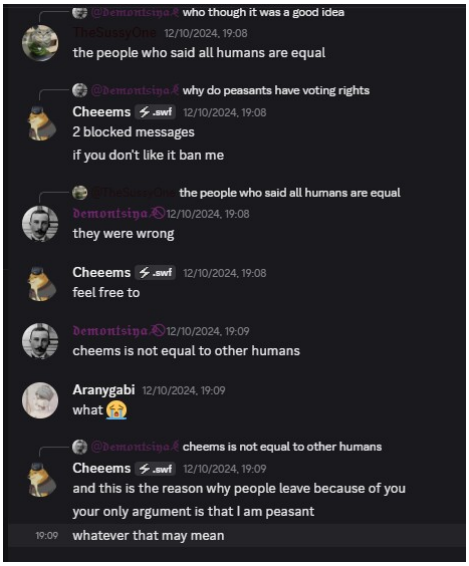


e) Erm, what...?



f) Excuse me?

g) Calling someone "subhuman"



h) Repeated hateful comments; quoting Rule One of TGWR's rules:

Discriminatory and hateful statements targeting individuals or groups on the basis of citizenship, ethnicity, race, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, religion, etc.

When you're banned in the server you're not welcome in other parts of the community

I did yeah

But you probably wouldn't consider supporting Nazi conspiracy theories as a valid reason for ban anyway

I mean spamming and lying about the reason why you were banned is misinformation and is bannable in our server

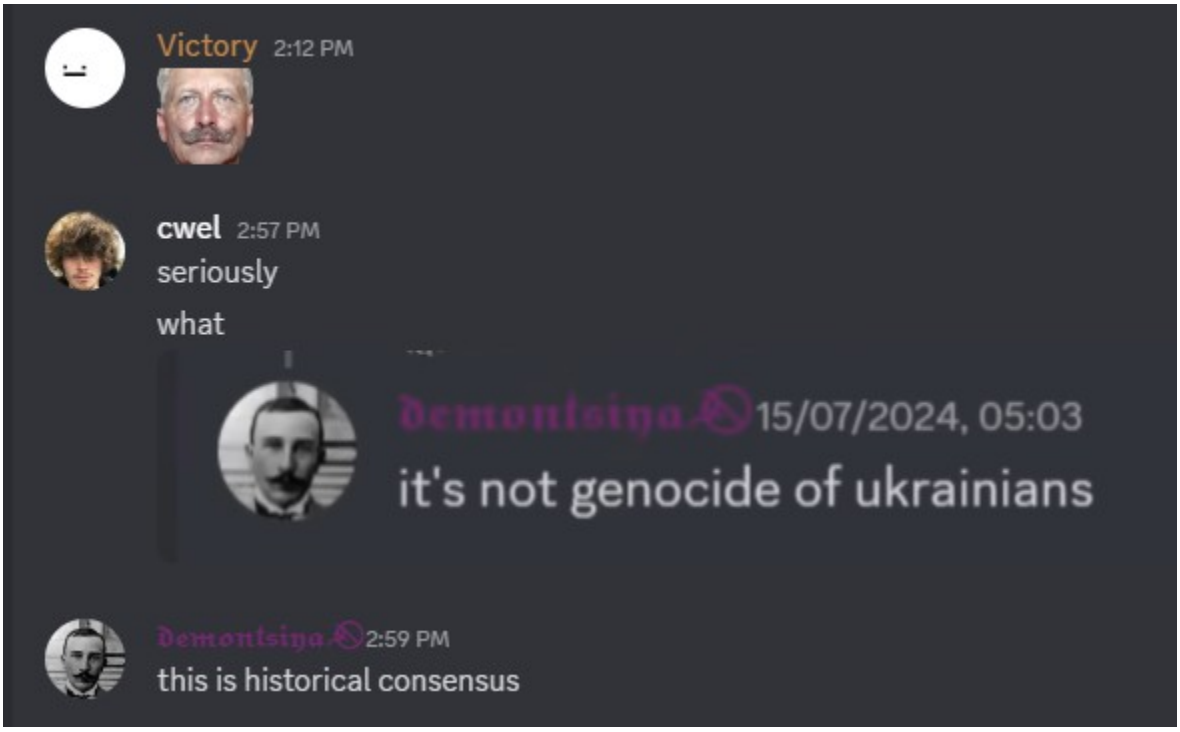
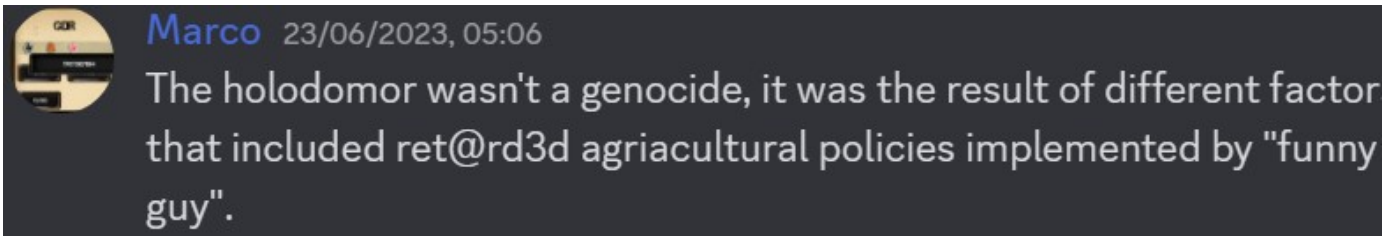
i) Denying the Holodomor:



j)

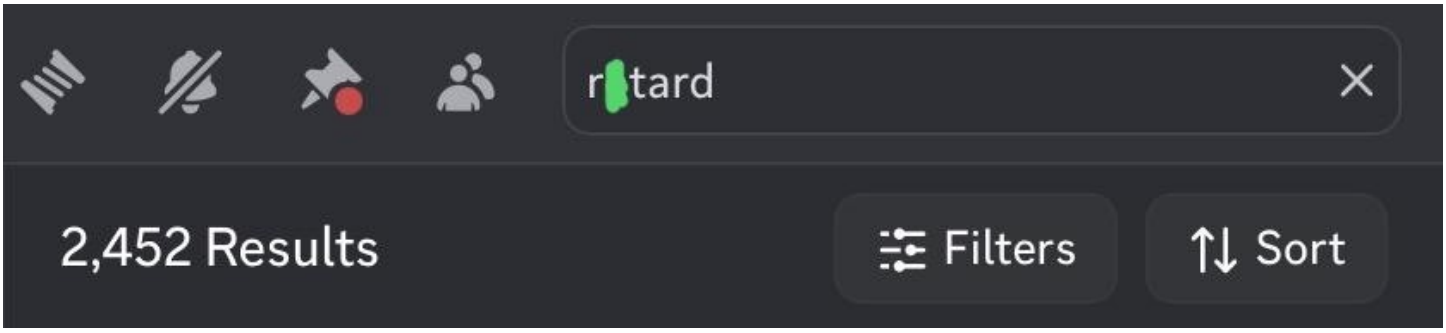
- Other members of the staff team have also been seen expressing their messed up political opinions.]
  Take Mr.Marco here, he denies the Holodomor



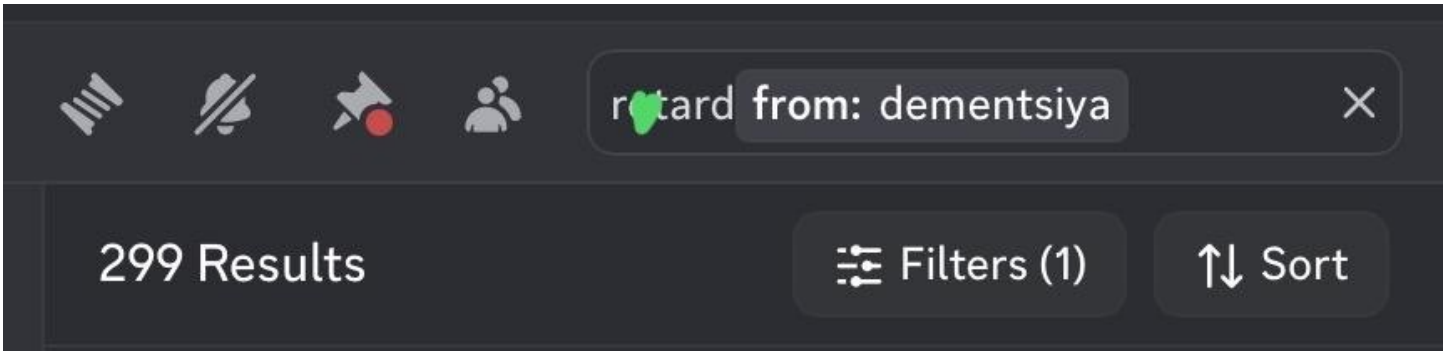
[IF THIS PART NEEDS CONTINUING, CONTINUE IT ABOVE THIS TEXT HERE THERE IS A BLANK LINE THERE.]

CASE 3: THE SLUR CULTURE

Many of the developers use slurs such as r*tard not only in their dev channels, but also in public. Below is the number of search results for the slur r*tard in the server overall as of 27/01/26:



Below is the number of search results of r*tard from just the Head Dev, Dementsiya, as of 27/01/26:



Of course it isn't just Demntsiya that is using these slurs; I have attached below several other developers and how many times they've used r*tard as well.

[INSERT IMAGES HERE]

Of course the dev team doesn't only use r*tard; there a multitude of different slurs used by the developer team in public channels and r*tard is just the most commonly used one of these.
